THE ELECTIONS.

The writs for the elections to the Northwest Legislative Assembly have been issued and are now in the hands of the returning officers.
The nomination day has been fixed for the 20th inst., and polling one week later. The notice is short though quite sufficient, and the shortness of the agony will no doubt be satisfactory to aspirants who are already in the field. The reason for hastening the elections is that the Territories are now without any kind of legislative body whatever. The old council is defunct, and the present Lieutenant-Governor is anxious that the new Legislative Assembly should be in existence before he leaves office. The circumstances no doubt justify the apparent haste to have the elections over, but there is one important question involved to some extent in the contest that will not become sufficiently canvassed before election day to enable either the new Legislature or the Dominion Government to arrive at an accurate conclusion thereon. We refer to the question of Prohibition. As we have pointed out in previous issues of THE PROGRESS, the true feelings of the people on this great question cannot be correctly ascertained in a contest like the present.
It is only by a direct vote of the people that this can be done. Still Prohibition is an important factor in the pending election, and it is necessary where candidates are not known Prohibitionists that a pledge should be taken from them that they will not, if elected, go beyond their functions, like the late Council, and recommend the granting of liquor licences without regard to the views of the people thereon. It is important that each candidate should be so pledged. In the provisional District of Assiniboia very few straight rummies have dared to show themselves as candidates, and those that did have been driven ignominiously from the field. The people of the Territories are determined to hold on to the measure of Prohibition they have. Forward is the watchword.

THIS OR THAT.

The present aspect of the election contest in South Qu'Appelle seems to indicate an inability on the part of the electorate as a body to arise above sectionalism. First a meeting was held in this municipality for the purpose of uniting on a candidate.
A decision was arrived at, but the union apparently effected was not cordial. The disaffected looked to the east for further developments.
Spurred on by the example of the west, the residents of Indian Head municipality held several meetings and in convention are unable to agree. Failing to nominate a man from their own municipality, at a subsequent meeting the advisability of nominating a western man was proposed, but was not received with very much favor, and Major Bell was then put into the field. Before this final decision was arrived at there was a hope that a sufficient number of the electors of both the east and west might be induced to rise above sectional feeling and select a man with a view of promoting the common welfare of the electoral district as a whole. The action of the eastern people has dispelled that hope, and we now find the east arrayed against the west.
It is not a question of Prohibition or license or any other well defined principle of public policy, but which of the two municipalities is numerically the greater. This is really an undesirable state of affairs, but it is apparently unavoidable. The posters calling the meeting at Qu'- Appelle were so worded as to include the whole electoral district, and there were a few present from the Indian Head municipality, but as a whole the east refused to act with those of the west. There is nothing, therefore, for the west to do but to concentrate their forces upon their candidate as they appear to be doing in the east. This municipi-pality has the advantage in every way. It is numerically stronger and Mr. G. S. Davidson is a much more desirable candidate than Major Bell. Mr. Davidson is an energetic public spirited citizen, who, if elected, will undoubtedly exert himself for the benefit of the electoral district. Major Bell is an energetic citizen also, but the general opinion is that he would exert himself more for his own personal benefit than that of the district. It is the duty of the electors to choose between the two. Mr. Davidson's supporters should organize themselves, and be thoroughly prepared to poll every possible vote. It will not be wise to be over confident. Every vote counts.

THE CALL BURNED OUT.

On Sunday morning last the printing office of the Winnipeg Morning Call was burned out. The cause of the fire is unknown. The loss is estimated at $45,000; insured for $26,400. Monday morn-ing's issue of the Call was issued on time though somewhat reduced in size. The various printing offices in the city loaned the publishers sufficient type and plant to enable them to issue the paper without a break.
New plant is being procured and every preparation made for the continuation of the business. The Call won for itself a splendid reputation and its recent reduction in subscription price to $5 has brought it into popular favor everywhere. The management deserve great credit for the pluck with which they have faced their fiery disaster.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Canadian committee appointed by the British association to investigate the physical characters, languages, industrial and social condition of Northwest Indians, is about to make a vigorous effort to secure information, and is sending out communications to Government officers and public men acquainted with the Indians of the Territories. H. Hale of Clinton, and G. M. Dawson, of Ottawa, have the matter in hand.

It is said 400 acres of flax will be grown on Sir L. Kay's farm at Balgownie near Regina this season.
The flax will be sent to Belfast, Ireland, for manufacture. This may be the commencement of a flourishing industry in the west. The adaptability of this country to flax culture is well known. It is not generally known that flax grows wild upon the prairies but such is nevertheless the case. Where flax is indigenous to the soil, the cultivation of the domestic variety should prove highly satisfactory.

A DRUNKARD'S WILL.

I leave to society a ruined character a wretched example and a memory that will soon rot. I leave to my parents during the rest of their lives, as much sorrow as humanity, in a feeble and declining state can sustain. I leave to my brother and sister as much mortification and injury as I could bring on them. I leave to my wife a broken heart, a life of wretchedness and shame, to weep over my premature death. I give and bequeath to each of my children poverty, ignorance, and low character, and the remembrance that their father was a monster.

A man of temperate habits was once dining at the house of a free drinker.
No sooner was the cloth removed from the dinner-table than wine and spirits were produced, and he was asked to take a glass of spirits and water. "No, thank you," said he.
"I am not ill." "Take a glass of wine, then," said his host, "or a glass of ale." "No, thank you," said he, "I am not thirsty." These answers produced a loud burst of laughter. Soon after this, the temperate man took a piece of bread from the sideboard, and handed it to his host, who refused it, saying that he was not hungry. At this the temperate man laughed in his turn. "Surely," said he, "I have as much reason to laugh at you for not eating when you are not hungry as you have to laugh at me for declining medicine when not ill and drink when I am not thirsty."

"DECORATION DAY."

The years that have elapsed since the close of the civil war have served to obliterate all sectional feeling and a united and prosperous nation joins in keeping green the graves of all its beloved dead. It is in this spirit that the publisher of the NEW YORK FAMILY STORY PAPER has had written a thrilling and pathetic romance, peculiarly appropriate to this national holiday entitled "Faithful Leonore; or, His Grave Kept Green." In the same paper will also be found a weekly instalment of the "Life and Adventures of a Showman of P. T. Barnum," written by himself, and equally interesting to the young folks as well as heads of families.
These are rare literary treats, and those of our readers who are not already enjoying them will do well to obtain No. 766 of the NEW YORK FAMILY STORY PAPER of their news-dealer or send direct to the publisher, Munro's Publishing House, Nos. 24 and 26 Vandewater Street, New York, and receive the paper four months for one dollar, postage free.

The Prohibition National Convention at Indianapolis has nominated dent.

The business of the C. P. R.

UNION JACK HISTORY.

Curious Points About the Banner of Great Britain and Ireland.
Letter to the Editor of the London Daily News.
We are all familiar with the white, blue and red ensigns, and with the union jack which occupies the upper quarter nearest the flagstaff. The white ensign has the red cross of St. George in addition to the union jack.
The red cross represents our old national flag as it existed from the time of Richard I. until after the death of Elizabeth. This red cross flag, he banner of St. George, appears to have been chosen by the Soldier King in honor of the saint who was the patron of soldiers. It remained for more than 400 years the flag under which the English warriors fought on land and on sea. When James VI. of Scotland succeeded Elizabeth, the Scotch had a national flag. That also was a cross, but it was shaped differently from that of St.
George, and was known as the cross of St.
Andrew. The ground of the Scotch flag was blue, and its cross was white. To mark the union of the English and Scotch, their sovereign the national banner underwent a change, although Scotland still retained its separate Parliament. In the new flag the two banners of England and Scotland were united. There appeared in it the oblique white cross of St. Andrew on the blue ground, and the red cross of St. George on a white margin, worked in the blue field. The King was accustomed to sign his name in the French form of James, "Jacques." He was, in fact, the Union Jacques, or, as we improperly pronounce it Jack. For local purposes the Scotch still continued to use the white St. Andrew's cross on the blue field and the English the red cross on the white field. It was stated by royal proclamation in 1606 that "whereas some difference hath arisen between our subjects of South and North Britain, traveling by sea, about the bearing of their flags. For the avoiding of all such contentions hereafter we have, with the advice of our council, ordered that from henceforth all our subjects of this Isle and Kingdom of Great Britain and the members thereof shall bear in mind maintain the Red Cross, commonly called St. George's cross, and the White cross, commonly called St. Andrew's cross, joined together, and in their foreign journeys our subjects of South Britain shall bear the Red Cross only as they were wont; and our subjects of North Britain in their foreign journeys the White cross only as they were wont.
In 1707, when the Scotch and English legislatures were united, the distinctive flags ceased to be used, and the united flags as arranged in 1606 became the single ensign for the United Kingdom. It was the sovereign that made the union and established the national flag and an establishment of distinct legislatures again would not alter the flag. Ireland would take presumably for its local ensign the red cross of St. Patrick. This Irish banner ought to have appeared in the union flag of 1606, but it did not. Ireland had no distinct recognition in the union flag until 1801, when the Irish and British legislatures were united.
At that date the union jack underwent a further change, and the red diagonal cross of St.
Patrick on a white field was introduced.
Since that date the union jack has shown the red cross and white margin, retaining the banner of St. George, the white diagonal blue field of St. Andrew's banner, and the red diagonal cross of St. Patrick showing over the

The blue ground of the Jack is therefore due to Scotland and the red and white as crosses and margins to England and Ireland.

—About 300,000 free-dred men are at present working in the mines of California. The output of gold and silver, though not as large as formerly, still amounts to $20,000,000 per year. In 1882 California produced gold to the value of $16,800,000, and last year the product would have been materially greater had not several large hydraulic mines been enjoined from working by the farmers of the San Joaquin Valley, who complained that the displaced gravel of the mines was washed down upon their farms.—San Francisco Chronicle

Savoy Chapel Royal, London. The choir formed a procession down the aisle to meet the bride and then walked back before her to their places in the church chanting a bridal hymn. A moral support is thus given to a faltering girl who has usually to walk up the aisle the observed of all observers, and overhearing, perhaps, remarks on the redness of her nose, or some defect in her dress, not very reassuring. After the ceremony the choir again formed in procession and walked before the bride and groom down the aisle to the entrance gate.

During their migration swallows have been repeatedly known to settle upon the rigging of vessels, apparently suffering from extreme exhaustion, and after remaining a night to rest renew their journey refreshed and invigorated. They invariably return to the tropics for winter.

—The latest reports from Indian Head go to show that the eastern electors are uniting almost to a man on Major Bell. Correspondence.

To the Editor of The Progress.
SIR: At the convention held at Indian Head, on Saturday, June 2nd, for the purpose of bringing out a man from the eastern portion of the district, to represent them at the coming election, Major Bell was chosen as the standard bearer, thereby placing him before the electors of the district as a candidate for the Northwest Assembly. Therefore it will not be out of place to refer to some matters that affect the resident ratepayers throughout the district in connection with Major Bell and the company he has or does represent, and consider whether it would be advisable to elect a man holding the position and interest in any land company that Major Bell does, to the Northwest Assembly, to frame and enact the ordinances under which our institutions are erected and conducted.

A portion of the Bell Farm is situated in the Municipality of South Qu'Appelle, viz., Section 1-18-14, 12-18-14, 24-18-14, 12-19-14, 13-

19-14, and S. 1, 24-19-14. These the Bell Farming Company admit ownership of and appropriate them to their own use and benefit. The taxes recorded in the books of the Municipality of South Qu'Appelle for the past four years against these lands amount to a total of $435.65 of which amount not one dollar has been paid. The Company not having any chattels upon the lands, are placed in the happy position of being able to defy the collection of these taxes by the usual method of seizure and sale. And while the municipal ordinances of the Territories provides that taxes are a debt due the municipality as well as a lien upon the land and may be collected through the courts in the ordinary way, still a difficulty arises in the shape of gigantic chattel mortgages on stock, crops and furniture, so that if recovery of these taxes were attempted through the courts the probability is that the municipality would have to contend with a company that really does not represent anything except these sections of land for which they do not pay the taxes charged against them.

Although provision is made in the Northwest ordinance for the sale of lands for taxes, there has not been a sale of land for taxes as yet; why there has not been nobody seems to know. The result is that the resident settler who has chattels in his possession within the municipality and upon the lands assessed, has had and will still have to pony up the taxes for municipal improvements and educational purposes while the companies lands are being equally advanced in value with the land of the residents, in consequence of said improvements, until such times as the members of the Northwest Assembly enact such laws and bring about such changes and provisions as will force all lands in arrears for taxes held by either land companies, non-residents, or speculators, upon the market to satisfy taxes justly recorded against them. These necessary changes will be a long time coming about if we send men like Major Bell or any other man whose direct interest it is to leave these matters still as they are. This is only one instance, there are other land companies and land holders in a similar position in both municipalities in this electoral district. There are recorded in the sheriff's office taxes due the municipality of South Qu'Appelle to the amount of $9093.48, the Bell Farm taxes being a part of the same, and there must also be a large sum due the Indian Head municipality. The benefits that must accrue to non-ratepayers as well as to ratepayers throughout the entire district from an equitable rate being collected upon all land entitled to pay the same, must be apparent to all. As it will reduce the rates required and also furnish money for local improvements thereby helping the pioneer settler to struggle through the hardships incidental to all new countries. With all respect for Major Bell's ability and apologizing for the length for the length of this letter I am yours respectively, ASA M. McLANE.

QU'APPELLE SYNOD.

The Synod of the Diocese of Qu'Appelle met in the Pro-Cathedral here, on the 29th inst., when the following members were present: The Lord Bishop of the Diocese; The Revs. J. G. Sargent, M.A., Moosemin; J. W. Gregory, B.A., in temporary charge at Regina; W. G. Lyon, M.A., Medicine Hat; W. E. Brown, Whitehead; W. St. J. Field, M.A., Moose Mountain; P. K. Lyon, Abernethy; W. Nicolls, B.A., Moose Jaw; Owen Owens, Touchwood, and the following Deacons who had been ordained on the previous Sunday: W. H. Green, T. W. Cunliffe, G. N. Dobie, T. G. Beal and T. A. Teitelbaum. The Lay Delegates present were His Lordship Judge Wetmore, and Major Phipps, Moosemin; W. C. Hamilton, Mayor of Regina, and H. Fisher, Regina; Leslie Gordon and R. D. Strong, Qu'Appelle; T. Pearson, Whitehead; S. Page, Moose Mountain; F. E. Fatt, Medicine Hat; M. Vidal, sen., Katapew; H. A. J. MacDougall, Fort Qu'Appelle; R. E. Sherlock and O. P. Skrine, Grenfell; G. L. Sherlock and T. Birbeck, Moose Jaw; C. E. Dickenson, Abernethy; C. Dodd, Broadview.

The Bishop in his charge referred to the several changes in the clergy during the last twelve months and the difficulty there was of obtaining clergy for work in the Diocese. There are now 17 buildings for church purposes 14 of which are consecrated churches and 2 churches are in course of erection at Fort Pelly and Touchwood and a new church is being erected at Moose Jaw. There are now 8 houses for the clergy in the Diocese. The Bishop then gave some interesting statistics of the different amounts raised by the English, the Presbyterian and the Methodist churches and the work being done by them. The Bishop also shortly referred to the Permit System and the necessity of some change in legislation with regard to the Liquor question. The Synod then discussed the resolution referred to from last year as to the Canon of Marriage, with regard to the marrying of divorced persons which after a long discussion, in which Judge Wetmore, Rev. W. Nicolls, Rev. W. Gregory and others took part, was lost.

Rev. H. Lyon was appointed secretary, and Mr. H. Fisher, treasurer, of the Synod for the ensuing year.

It was moved by W. C. Hamilton and seconded by Judge Wetmore, that it would be advantageous for the Diocese that the endowment raised for the See of this Diocese, should be transferred for investment in this country and hereby request the Bishop to apply to the Colonial Bishopric Council and to the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel for such part of the same as has been subscribed and it further takes this opportunity of tendering its expression of sincere gratitude and thankfulness to these Societies and also to the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge for the generous help they have given towards this endowment. Carried.

Moved by Leslie Gordon and seconded by G. L. Sherlock, that the Synod desire to express its deep gratitude to the Almighty God for the help rendered in laying the foundation of the church in this Diocese, through the agency of the subscribers to the Assiniboia Church Fund, and it desires further to take the opportunity of the visit of the Bishop to England to convey this expression of thankfulness to the representatives of the said Society and it would respectfully request His Lordship to place this resolution before the Society whenever he may have the opportunity of doing so personally. Carried.

It was moved by H. A. J. MacDougall and seconded by the Rev. J. G. Sargent, that whereas His Lordship, the Bishop of the Diocese has intimated his intention to attend the Pan Anglican Synod to be held at Lambeth Palace, Eng., in July next, and whereas it is understood that His Lordship will while in England, endeavor to arouse among those with whom he may come in contact, a deeper interest in the welfare of the church in the Diocese of Qu'Appelle and whereas the Diocese is greatly indebted to his Lordship for the very liberal help granted through him by friends and religious societies in England in the past, and whereas it is expedient that we bear testimony to the very noble work now being done by His Lordship in this Diocese, yet regretting that the paucity of funds has very much hampered the furtherance by him of the good work. Therefore be it resolved that the members of the Synod now in Session assembled, unanimously record their unbounded confidence in His Lordship, the Bishop of Qu'Appelle, in the work he is now engaged in. That the high moral tone inspired by him, is laying the lines for the foundation of a great and noble church work in these Territories and that this Synod adds its prayer for his safe journey to and from England. Unanimously carried without discussion standing.

Moved by H. Fisher, seconded by H. A. J. MacDougall, and resolved, That the Synod is of the opinion that further efforts should be made locally in this diocese for the clergy maintenance.

Moved by Rev. J. P. Sargent, seconded by Judge Wetmore, and resolved, That this Synod is of opinion that greater efforts should be made by the church to evangelize the heathen native population of the country in which we live, and that the time has come when a special fund should be established in the diocese for this purpose, and that every congregation should be requested to have one collection in the year for such a fund.

A resolution was moved by Leslie Gordon, seconded by Rev. P. K. Lyon, respecting the law prohibiting the importation of intoxicating liquors into the Northwest, but for want of time could not be discussed.

A WORD TO THE WISE.

The latest laws are such that newspaper publishers can arrest any one for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under the law the man who allows his subscription to run along for some time unpaid or takes three papers from the post office, and then orders the post master to mark it "refused," and have a notice sent notifying the publisher, lays himself liable to arrest and fine same as for theft.

Beef to be delivered "on foot," one or more animals at a time, upon call of the Agent of the district, and at times and points designated by him—the manner of butchering and quality of beef to be the same as described in Department Schedule for 1888-9, as required for Treaty 7—the whole animal, including the hide, to be the property of the Government, and to be paid per lb. of the net weight of the four quarters of each animal, which, of course, can only be ascertained after it is killed and dressed.

Should an Agent at any time during the hot weather require delivery of a smaller quantity of beef than would be obtained from a live animal, the delivery may be made of dressed meat, instead of "on foot," and in that case, the Contractor will not be required to deliver the offal. Deliveries to commence immediately after completion of contracts.

Tenders will be received for any quantity not less than 3000 lbs. of the above. Each tender must be accompanied by an accepted cheque, in favor of the Indian Commissioner for Manitoba and the North-West Territories, or the equivalent in cash, for at least 5 per cent. of the amount of the tender, which will be forfeited, if the party tendering, declines to enter into a contract, when called upon to do so, for the whole or any portion of his tender, or if he fails to complete the work contracted for.

If the tender be not accepted the cheque or cash deposited, will be returned. Deposits will be returned to successful tenderers upon satisfactory completion of their contracts.

Contractors will be required to furnish two approved sureties, in the amount of their contract for the due fulfillment of the same.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

(Signed) E. DEWDNEY, Commissioner.

Indian Office, Regina, June 1st, 1888.
